

WEST BENGAL BIODIVERSITY BOARD

(Department of Environment, Government of West Bengal)

No. 151 /5T(Bio)-1/2024

Date: 07/02/2024

NOTICE

Throughout the World, every year, 22nd May is observed as International Day for Biological Diversity (IDB). It is celebrated to raise global awareness about the vital role biodiversity plays in the survival and well-being of this planet. This day also marks the date of the adoption of the Convention on Biodiversity in the year 1992 in Rio-De-Janeiro of Brazil.

To celebrate the IDB, West Bengal Biodiversity Board is organizing a Slogan Contest on the theme of 'Conservation of Biodiversity'. This activity would create awareness and encourage the citizen of the country, especially the students, about the conservation of biodiversity.

Interested Participants are required to submit a slogan of maximum two lines (20 words) on 'Conservation of Biodiversity' in Bengali/English. The first three best entries will be awarded at the programme venue in Kolkata on 22nd May 2024.

Deadline for Entries : 30/04/2024 (upto 5:00 p.m.)
